Providing hunger relief to low-income Jewish families.

The Jewish Relief Agency (JRA) is a dynamic volunteer-driven organization, 10,500 strong. One Sunday each month, 750-900 volunteers of all ages and backgrounds meet as a community at our Northeast Philadelphia warehouse to pack fresh produce and non-perishable kosher food, load their cars with boxes and deliver food and a smile into the homes of our more than 2,800 recipient households.
